

Soviet Equipment

Note: as Russian vehicles are sometimes obscure, the purpose of each has been added for clarity.

Trailers:

Soft Skinned Vehicles:

Tracked-

Wheeled-

Mortars and Crew-Served Weapons-

Artillery:

Field-

Multiple Rocket Launchers-

Anti-Aircraft-

Anti-Aircraft Missile Systems-

Anti-Tank Guided Missile Systems-

Surface-to-Surface Missile and Free-Flight Rocket Systems-

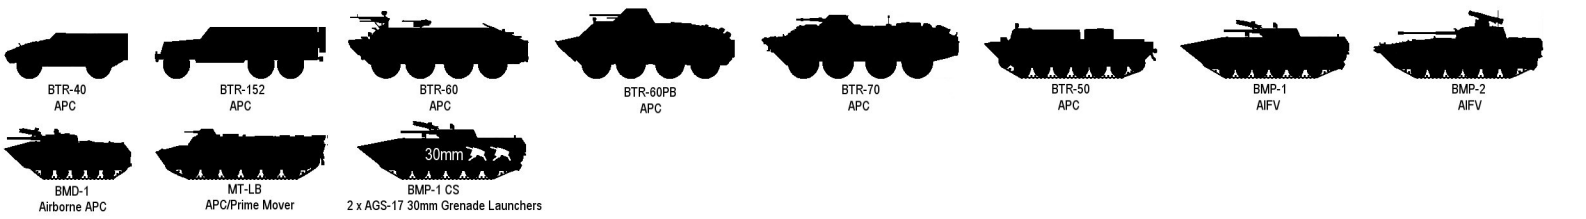

Reconnaissance Vehicles:

Electronics and Radar Vehicles:

APCs and AIFVs:

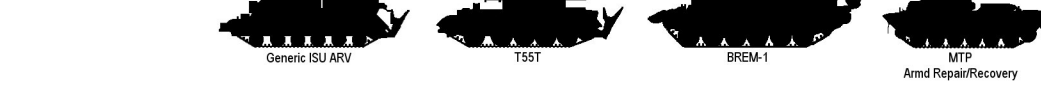

Command Vehicles:

Medium, Heavy and Main Battle Tanks:

Armoured Recovery Vehicles:

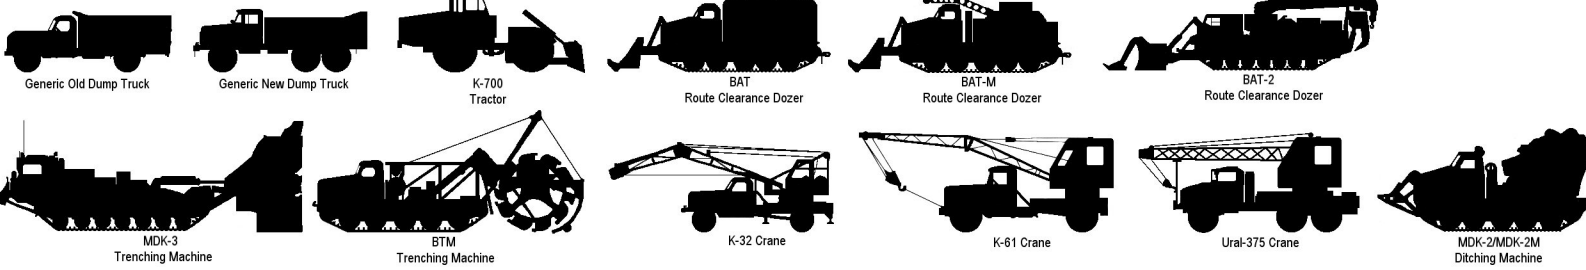

Chemical Defence Equipment:

Engineering Equipment:

Construction-

E-305
Power Crane Shovel

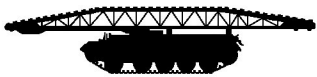

Generic Grader

KG-65
Trenching Machine

Gap and River Crossing Equipment-

T-54 MTU
Arm'd Bridgelayer

MT-55 /BLG60
Arm'd Bridgelayer

TMM
Treadway Bridge

TPP Floating Bridge
Barrels/Spares)

TPP Floating Bridge
Centre Span

TPP Floating Bridge
End Section

PMP Pontoon Bridge
Centre Section

PMP Pontoon Bridge
End Section

BMK-T
Power Boat

GSP Ferry

BAV
Wheeled Amphibian

K-61
Tracked Amphibian

PTS
Tracked Amphibian

PKP
Amphibious Trailer

LPP Floating Bridge
Centre Span

LPP Floating Bridge
End Section

Mine Warfare Equipment-

BTU
Dozer Blade

KMT Series
Mine Plough/Rollers

GMZ
Minelayer

MTK
Mine Clearer

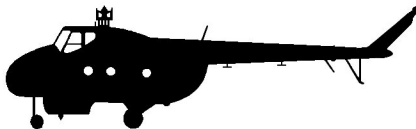

IMR
Combat Engineer Vehicle

Targets:

Mi-1 'Hare'
Utility Helicopter

Mi-4 'Hound'
Transport Helicopter

All vehicles/weapons are drawn to a rough scale of 1 pixel to the inch. Those vehicles marked 'generic' represent a vehicle class (eg: dump trucks). Those box-bodied vehicles marked 'specialty' are all van-types in appearance but very specific in their use. There are/were many more vehicles in service not shown here which can/could be substituted for those shown in the ORBATs.

(C) Barry Beldam 29.12.2003